Youngest Crew in the 2023 Tall Ships Race

We are always smiling

During the last season, we asked each of our participants what our trips meant to them, and this is what they said:

89% said they had learned a new skill.

81% said they felt more confident.

80% said their voyage was memorable.

79% said they felt happier as a result.

75% said they had developed better relationships with others.

71% said they were more likely to try new things in the future.

Please continue supporting

“Adventures Offshore”
and its volunteers

Please keep us smiling

Many Thanks
