

Shipwrights Afloat

It was a busy weekend for Shipwrights in the Solent. In Newtown Creek, the family gathering took place with a raft up overnight. With Gin Pennants flying, there was no shortage of wining and dining including cocktails on the beach.

Meanwhile, in Cowes, Shipwrights took part in the Baltic Exchange regatta. Despite the lack of wind on Saturday and too much on Sunday, a good time was had by all.

